Xavier College Preparatory High School

Theology Instructor

Xavier College Preparatory High School is currently seeking a Theology instructor for a full–time position for the upcoming academic year. The ideal candidate will have experience teaching at the high school level, preferably with experience and appreciation for the Jesuit model of education. In addition to being a full-time member of the teaching faculty, duties include participation in an ongoing teacher formation program, assisting in the daily needs of the school community, and moderating or assisting in at least one extracurricular program offered by the school.

Qualifications

- Minimum of BS degree in subject area; MA, MS, or M Ed preferred or a combination of an unrelated bachelor's degree and appropriate professional experience.
- Teaching experience required.

Competencies

- Background suitable for teaching all levels in the Theology program.
- Understanding of educational theory and practice.
- Ability to use technology inside and outside the classroom.

The ideal candidate will meet the following minimum requirements for any position at Xavier College Prep:

- Serve as a guide with and for students on their formation journey in a Jesuit high school.
- Demonstrate respect and professionalism at all times, in keeping with the school's mission and Jesuit identity.
- Effectively relate to students and build positive relationships.
- Display excellent communication skills.
- Demonstrate the willingness and ability to listen, developing mutual trust with students and colleagues.
- Demonstrate the willingness to work with a diverse student body.

About Xavier and how to apply:
Xavier College Preparatory is a Roman Catholic high school that actively seeks, educates, and nurtures young men and women from a wide variety of ethnic, socioeconomic, and religious backgrounds in the Coachella Valley. In the tradition of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Society of Jesus, Jesuit education is committed to the development of the whole person through a challenging educational experience, spiritual and religious formation, and co-curricular involvement. Supporting the role of parents as primary educators, our entire school program is dedicated to developing conscientious leaders and agents of change who are intellectually competent, open to growth, committed to justice, religious, loving and compassionate in service to others for the greater glory of God.
