

FORDHAM PREP

Jesuit Education is Faith, Scholarship & Service

Leave Replacement Teacher - Social Studies Department

The Institution

Founded in 1841, Fordham Prep is a Catholic Jesuit college preparatory school for young men located on the Rose Hill Bronx campus adjacent to Fordham University in New York City. With approximately 950 students enrolled in grades 9-12, Fordham Prep draws young men of diverse backgrounds from throughout the boroughs of New York City and its surrounding suburbs. Fordham Prep's mission is to form leaders committed to faith, scholarship, and service through a college preparatory education in the Catholic Jesuit tradition.

The Position

Fordham Prep seeks a short-term leave replacement Social Studies teacher for the months of January to April 2021. The position entails teaching five class sections: two sections of AP Psychology (seniors) and three sections of Global Studies 2 Honors (sophomores). Additional responsibilities include proctoring, student mentoring, and department meetings. The ideal applicant should possess at minimum a BA in History, Psychology, or a related field, and an MA is preferred. Ideal candidates will bring experience working with adolescents in a secondary school setting, and be able to support the school's mission of fostering young men of academic excellence and good moral character through a commitment to the ideals of Jesuit education.

Application Process

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Review of applications and interviews will take place immediately; the position will be filled shortly thereafter. Please email a letter stating personal interest, a comprehensive resume, and the names and phone numbers of at least two references (who will not be contacted until later in the interview process) to the attention of Dr. Joseph Petriello, Principal, and Mr. Matthew Bobo, Social Studies Department Chair, at:
