

College Counselor 2024 - 2025

Brophy College Preparatory in Phoenix, Arizona seeks an experienced full-time college counselor, beginning with the 2024-2025 school year, to advise students and provide resources for parents and faculty members regarding current trends in college admissions and financial aid. In addition to guiding students through the college admissions process, the college counselor also serves as students' first point of contact for personal and academic support.

The preferred candidate will be an experienced college counselor or college admissions officer who is organized and attentive to detail. An outgoing and energetic personality that fosters strong relationships with students, parents, faculty, and college admissions officers is essential. Candidates must also be able to communicate effectively and persuasively, both orally and in writing, and preferably in Spanish as well as English. Candidates should anticipate occasional travel for college visits and conferences. Finally, candidates should not only demonstrate a passion for the work of college counseling but also for the mission and values of Brophy's Catholic, Jesuit identity including the work of anti-racism.

Compensation and Benefits:

- Salary is based on academic background and experience and is highly competitive with local school districts and private schools
- Health insurance, retirement, life insurance, summer and major holiday breaks
- Opportunity for summer employment
- Opportunity to work with talented and motivated students in a variety of settings
- Close collaboration with highly collegial, professional, and engaging faculty and staff
- Counselors have the resources and freedom necessary to be creative, collaborative, innovative, and focused on the formation and education of their students

About Brophy: A Catholic, Jesuit secondary school with an enrollment of 1350 boys, Brophy offers its students a rigorous and relevant college preparatory curriculum, a highly developed fine arts and music program, a diversity of extracurricular activities, and a strong retreat and service-learning program. As a Jesuit school, Brophy takes great pride in striving to form well-rounded young men who are firmly grounded in a relationship with God that orients them to lead lives of service. In addition to the high school, Brophy includes Loyola Academy, which is a tuition-free, comprehensive junior high school program for 6th, 7th, and 8th-grade boys who demonstrate academic promise but have had limited educational opportunities. More information about Brophy can be found at www.brophyprep.org.

To Apply: Interested applicants should submit a letter of interest and résumé to Jim Bopp, Principal: jbopp@brophyprep.org. Application materials will be accepted until the position is filled.

Brophy College Preparatory is an equal-opportunity employer. We celebrate diversity and are committed to creating an inclusive environment for all employees.