

JOB POSTING

Instructional Technologist

ABOUT US

For more than 100 years, Rockhurst High School has been a place where boys become young men, with minds, bodies and souls prepared for the challenges of college and life beyond. Rockhurst challenges students with a rigorous academic program in the classical Jesuit tradition. We offer great benefits and competitive wages.

PURPOSE

We are seeking a career-minded individual to become the Instructional starting in August of 2022. The ideal candidate will have a Master's degree in Educational Technology, Curriculum and Instruction or other comparable field and a demonstrated ability to serve in a college preparatory environment. The Instructional Technologist will work in a structured and collaborative environment with others who are committed to the formation of each student according to the principles of the Grad at Grad: Open to Growth, Intellectually Competent, Religious, Committed to Doing Justice, and Loving.

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Partner with faculty to implement researched-based instructional practice
- Train and support teachers with adoption of new learning tools
- Design and implement the student experience with the 1:1 program
- Broker, purchase, distribute, and support textbooks for all students
- Research, broker, and purchase digital learning software
- Advise and collaborate with Department Chairs in instructional development
- Teach at least one section of a course each semester
- Create resources/tutorials to assist parents and students in blended learning
- Collaborate with IT Services on technology support, design, and implementation
- Participate actively in the school's co-curricular and spiritual activities
- All other duties as assigned

REQUIREMENTS

- Master's degree in Educational Technology, Curriculum and Instruction or other comparable field
- At least five years of experience in secondary education
- Demonstrated knowledge of learning management systems, computer operating systems, and OS management suites
- Ability to learn and adapt to new learning technologies and environments
- Creative problem-solving and creation of digital content
- Experience in curriculum development and best instructional practices
- Ability to communicate and collaborate effectively with faculty, administration, staff, and students
- Strong organizational and multi-tasking skills
- Ability to prepare and allocate a budget

HOW TO APPLY:

Please send resume to Mike Wickenhauser, Assistant Principal for Academics, at mwickenh@rockhursths.edu.

Rockhurst High School is an Equal Opportunity Employer.