

Faculty Position – Mathematics

Brophy College Preparatory is currently accepting applications for a full-time faculty position in the Mathematics Department beginning in August of 2024.

Possible courses, programs, and activities include:

- College preparatory math courses (algebra through at least pre-calculus)
- Coaching or moderating teams, clubs, or other extracurricular activities
- Leading retreats, immersion and service trips, and other formation experiences for students

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in mathematics, education, or related fields, with preference given to candidates who have graduate degrees in mathematics or education
- Special consideration given to candidates who have the credentials to teach dual enrollment college credit and/or AP-level courses
- Experience with and desire to engage in extracurricular activities such as coaching or moderating clubs and activities is highly desirable
- Passion for the mission and values of Brophy's Catholic, Jesuit identity

Compensation and Benefits:

- Salary is based on academic background and years of teaching experience and is highly competitive with local school districts and private schools
- Health insurance, retirement, life insurance, summer and major holiday breaks
- Opportunity for summer employment
- Opportunity to work with talented and motivated students in a variety of settings
- Close collaboration with highly collegial, professional, and engaging faculty
- Teachers have the resources and freedom necessary to be creative, collaborative, innovative, and focused on the formation and education of their students
- Brophy is a Catholic, Jesuit college preparatory school and the faculty and staff are committed to living out those values personally and professionally, including the work of anti-racism

To Apply: Interested candidates can apply by emailing a letter of introduction and a résumé to Brophy's Principal, Jim Bopp, at jbopp@brophyprep.org.

About Brophy: Brophy is a Catholic, Jesuit school with an enrollment of 1,400 young men. It offers its students a rigorous and relevant college preparatory curriculum, a highly developed fine arts and music program, a diversity of extracurricular activities, and a strong retreat and service learning program. As a Jesuit school, Brophy takes great pride in striving to form well-rounded young men who are firmly grounded in a relationship with God that orients them to lead lives of service. In addition to the high school, Brophy includes Loyola Academy, which is a tuition-free, comprehensive junior high school program for sixth, seventh, and eighth grade boys who demonstrate academic promise but have had limited educational opportunities. For more information, visit Brophy's webpage.

Brophy College Preparatory is an equal-opportunity employer. We celebrate diversity and are committed to creating an inclusive environment for all employees.