

Position Description

Title: English Teacher (grades 6-8)

Status: 10 Month, Full-Time

Department: English

Availability: August 2024

Compensation: Competitive

Organization Description:

Loyola Blakefield, a Catholic, college preparatory school, established by the Jesuits and imbued with the spirit of Ignatius Loyola, forms men to serve with and for others. The Loyola student is preparing to graduate as a man of integrity, who, because he strives “to find God in all things,” is open to growth, intellectually ambitious, religious, loving, and committed to diversity and doing justice.

Our students come from all walks of life and so do our teachers and staff. As such, we actively seek to recruit and retain a faculty and staff reflective of the diverse backgrounds and experiences of our student body. Through inclusive hiring practices, we ensure a community of connection and belonging where everyone can thrive.

We are searching for a caring, career-minded education professional to teach English. The position may include teaching at all levels from 6th through 8th grade, but currently is for 6th grade. The teacher will work in a dynamic, collaborative, and technology-rich environment with fellow teachers to create an educationally sound and developmentally appropriate learning environment.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Teach a full course load; 5 classes and 1 section of emergency proctoring
- Participate in co-curricular, service and retreat opportunities with students
- Collaborate and communicate effectively with students, parents, colleagues, and administrators
- Other duties as assigned

Skills and Requirements:

- Undergraduate degree in English and either successful completion of a teacher training program or 3 years of field experience working preferably in a middle school English classroom.
- A clear understanding of and commitment to Loyola Blakefield’s mission of graduating young men who are Religious, Loving, Academically Excellent, Open to Growth, Committed to Diversity, and Committed to Working for a Just World.
- Effective experience with current academic technology
- Positive, creative, solution-oriented temperament
