

GEORGETOWN PREPARATORY SCHOOL

JOB DESCRIPTION: Part-time Math teacher

Georgetown Preparatory School seeks a part-time Math teacher for the 2024-25 academic year.

Georgetown Preparatory School, the nation's oldest Jesuit high school, is currently seeking a part-time Math teacher for the 2024-25 academic year. The applicant will be responsible for teaching two forty-two minute math classes each school day. Applicants must be enthusiastic, energetic, and willing to teach as a member of a team, in conjunction with the other department members. The ideal candidate will have experience teaching math at the high school level, and will also have experience with and appreciation for the Jesuit model of education, and desire to train and care for the whole student in accordance with the Jesuit philosophy of cura personalis. Georgetown Prep requires a commitment to the mission and values of the school, as well as the willingness to contribute to the co-curricular program.

Georgetown Preparatory School, located outside Washington, DC and founded in 1789, is an independent, Jesuit, college preparatory, residential and day school for young men in grades 9-12. Enrollment is 500. Average class size is 16.

How to apply: All interested candidates should submit their application through our website Employment section. Candidates should include the following:

1. A letter of interest addressed to the Headmaster
2. Resume
3. A response to the following: Describe your philosophy of education and explain how you hope to put it into practice as a member of the Georgetown Prep faculty. (Maximum Response: 1000 words)

Compensation is commensurate with experience. Georgetown Prep offers a comprehensive and competitive benefit package (including health, disability, Sick and Vacation leave, 403B retirement plan with match, and a variety of other employee-valued benefits).
